

READi NM 2023 Pre-service training schedule – Region 1

Resource Engagement Adaptability Diversity initiative New Mexico (READI NM)

- Resource – every foster care provider is a resource for children/youth and their family
- Engagement – resource parents actively participate in the full process
- Adaptability – everyone must show up flexible in their mindset and in the work
- Diversity – growing the team of foster care members throughout the state
- initiative – taking the opportunity to wrap families with care and support
- NM – a training made by New Mexicans for New Mexicans

This training provides foundational knowledge for resource parent applicants to learn their role and be “READi” to work with families in the foster care system.

- Module 1: Who are our Children & Families
- Module 2: Reunification as the Role of the Resource Parent
- Module 3: Foundational Beliefs & Values of Foster Care
- Module 4: Child & Youth Identity and Family Connections
- Module 5: Care from a place of wholeness
- Module 6: Navigating services for children and youth
- Module 7: Resource parent resilience and self- care
- Module 8: Supporting transitions
- Module 9: Providing unconditional care
- Module 10: Trauma informed support
- Module 11/Closing: Trauma responsive discipline

All adults in your home identified as a caretaker for a foster child must attend the training in order.
