LOG OF YOUTH DETAINED OR CONFINED

Agency Name: Reporting Period:

Control   Note   Fig.   Fig.   Control   Note   Control   Contro	ALL INFORMATION IS REQUIRED!**
			Detain/Confine Information									Databalas
March   Marc	Case #	Youth Full Name	Gender	Race	Ethnicity	DOB	Most Serious Charge			as Adult?		Date started	Time started	Date ended	Time ended		Officer (Badge# or		Кеу
																			Gender Codes
March   Marc																		M =	Male
Second   S																		F =	Female
																		U=	Unknown
The content of the																			Race Codes
A																		W =	White
A   A   A   A   A   A   A   A   A   A																		B =	Black
A continue																		N =	Native American/Alaska Native
The continue contin																		A =	Asian
A status offence is a noncriminal between the Constitutes and offence only because of one's status as a minor test status of fence is a noncriminal between the Constitutes and offence only because of one's status as a minor test status of fence is a noncriminal between the Constitutes and offence only because of one's status as a minor test status of fence is a noncriminal between the Constitutes and offence only because of one's status as a minor test status. Series as a noncriminal between the Constitutes and offence only because of one's status as a minor test status. Series as a noncriminal between the Constitutes and offence only because of one's status as a minor test status. Series as a noncriminal between the Constitutes and offence only because of one's status as a minor test status. Series as a noncriminal between the Constitutes and offence only because of one's status as a minor test status. Series as a noncriminal between the Constitutes and offence only because of one's status as a minor test status. Series are due every month for all youth detailed/confined.    Series																		P =	Hawaiian/Pacific Islander
March   Manager   Manage																		U=	Unknown
Companies   Comp																			Ethnicity Codes
																		H=	Hispanic
A contact																		O =	Non-Hispanic
A																		U=	Unknown
A continue with the continue of the continue																			Location Codes
A continue																		1=	Holding Cell
A																		2 =	Cuffing Bench/Stationary Object
Satisfies of the second																		3 =	Interview Room (locked in)
Release Code:    A   A   B   B   B   B   B   B   B   B																		4 =	Conference Room
A status offender* MAY NOT be detained or confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.    A status offender* MAY NOT be detained or confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.    A status offender* MAY NOT be detained or confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.    A status offender* MAY NOT be detained or confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.    A status offender* MAY NOT be detained/confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.    A status offender* MAY NOT be detained/confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.    For assistance, contact:   S   S   S   S   S   S   S   S   S   S																		5 =	Other (must specify)
Be Junealle Detention  CFFD  CFFD  COUNT/Juny  Fe Other (must specify)  Each Count/Juny  Fe Other (must specify)  A delinquent offender may be detained or confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.  A status offender* MAY NOT be detained/confined in any room or area with secure holding capability. This includes: locked or lockable rooms (that can prevent free egress), rooms with stationary cuffing devices, cells, or any area within a secure perimeter. A permanent path of free egress must be available.  *A status offense is a noncriminal behavior transportation to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/ Por assistance, contact:  OFFD. Federal Compliance  CYFD. Federal Compliance  Bevidemm.gov  OFFD. Federal Compliance  Bevidemm.gov  OFFD. Federal Compliance  For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:  A status offense is a noncriminal part of the second of																			Release Codes
C = CVFD D= Adult Facility E= Court/Jury For assistance, contact: A status offender MAY NOT be detained/confined in any room or area with secure holding capability. This includes: locked or lockable rooms (that can prevent free egress), rooms with stationary cuffing devices, cells, or any area within a secure perimeter. A permanent path of free egress must be available. *A status offense is a noncriminal behavior barrier and such as a minor. Examples include: running away, truancy, curgew violations, incorrigibility, and minor in possession of tobacco.  *Description  Court/Jury For assistance, contact: A status offense is a noncriminal behavior barrier and secure perimeter. A permanent path of free egress must be available.  A status offense is a noncriminal behavior barrier and secure perimeter. A permanent path of free egress must be available.  Por assistance, contact: OVFD.FederalCompliance *																		A =	Parent/Guardian
Location Detail Note: Refer to your building floor plan to identify the exact location youth was detained/confined.  A delinquent offender may be detained or confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.  A status offender  MAY NOT* be detained/confined in any room or area with secure holding capability. This includes: locked or lockable rooms (that can prevent free egress), rooms with stationary cuffing devices, cells, or any area within secure perimeter. A permanent path of free egress must be available.  *A status offense is a noncriminal behavior that constitutes an offense only because of one's status as a minor. Examples include: running away, truancy, curgew violations, incorrigibility, and minor in possession of tobacco.  *CYFD. Federal Compliance @cyfd.nm.gov/  Please submit information to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/ For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:																		B =	Juvenile Detention
Location Detail Note: Refer to your building floor plan to identify the exact location youth was detained/confined.  A delinquent offender may be detained or confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.  A status offender MAY NOT be detained/confined in any room or area with secure holding capability. This includes: locked or lockable rooms (that can prevent free egress), rooms with stationary cuffing devices, cells, or any area within a secure perimeter. A permanent path of free egress must be available.  *A status offense is a noncriminal behavior that constitutes an offense only because of one's status as a minor. Examples include: running away, truancy, curgew violations, incorrigibility, and minor in possession of tobacco.  *CYFD.FederalCompliance @cyfd.nm.gov  Please submit information to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/ For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:																		C =	CYFD
*Location Detail Note: Refer to your building floor plan to identify the exact location youth was detained/confined.  A status offender * MAY NOT be detained/confined in any room or area with secure holding capability. This includes: locked or lockable rooms (that can prevent free egress), rooms with stationary cuffing devices, cells, or any area within a secure perimeter. A permanent path of free egress must be available.  *A status offense is a noncriminal behavior that constitutes an offense only because of one's status as a minor. Examples include: running away, truancy, curgew violations, incorrigibility, and minor in possession of tobacco.  Logs are due every month for all youth detained/confined. Please keep this log for your records.  Please submit information to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/ For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:																		D=	Adult Facility
Location Detail Note: Refer to your building floor plan to identify the exact location youth was detained/confined.  A delinquent offender may be detained or confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.  A status offender MAY NOT be detained/confined in any room or area with secure holding capability. This includes: locked or lockable rooms (that can prevent free egress), rooms with stationary cuffing devices, cells, or any area within a secure perimeter. A permanent path of free egress must be available.  *A status offense is a noncriminal behavior that constitutes an offense only because of one's status as a minor. Examples include: running away, truancy, curgew violations, incorrigibility, and minor in possession of tobacco.  CYFD.FederalCompliance  @cyfd.nm.gov  Please submit information to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/ or  For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:																		E =	Court/Jury
A delinquent offender may be detained or confined up to six (6) hours total for investigative purposes, release, or while awaiting transportation to a juvenile detention center.  A status offender* MAY NOT be detained/confined in any room or area with secure holding capability. This includes: locked or lockable rooms (that can prevent free egress), rooms with stationary cuffing devices, cells, or any area within a secure perimeter. A permanent path of free egress must be available.  *A status offense is a noncriminal behavior that constitutes an offense only because of one's status as a minor. Examples include: running away, truancy, curgew violations, incorrigibility, and minor in possession of tobacco.  Logs are due every month for all youth detained/confined. Please keep this log for your records.  Please submit information to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/ For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:																		F =	Other (must specify)
A status offender* MAY NOT be detained/confined in any room or area with secure holding capability. This includes: locked or lockable rooms (that can prevent free egress), rooms with stationary cuffing devices, cells, or any area within a secure perimeter. A permanent path of free egress must be available.  *A status offense is a noncriminal behavior that constitutes an offense only because of one's status as a minor. Examples include: running away, truancy, curgew violations, incorrigibility, and minor in possession of tobacco.  Logs are due every month for all youth detained/confined. Please keep this log for your records.  Please submit information to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/ For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:																Re	vised: March 2025
A status offense is a noncriminal behavior that constitutes an offense only because of one's status as a minor. Examples include: running away, truancy, curgew violations, incorrigibility, and minor in possession of tobacco.  Logs are due every month for all youth detained/confined. Please keep this log for your records.  Please submit information to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/ For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:	A status offer	A status offender MAY NOT be detained/confined in any room or area with secure holding capability. This includes: locked or lockable rooms (that can prevent free egress), rooms with stationary cuffing devices, cells, or any area within a														ea within a		-
Logs are due every month for all youth detained/confined. Please keep this log for your records.  Please submit information to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/  For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:  CYFD.FederalCompliance @cyfd.nm.gov or							secure perimeter.	A permane	ent path of free	egress mus	t be available.								contact:
Logs are due every month for all youth detained/confined. Please keep this log for your records.  Please submit information to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/ For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:	*A sta	atus offense is a noncrimi	inal be	ehav	ior t	hat constitutes an	offense only because of one's st	atus as a n	ninor. Examples	include: ru	nning away, tr	uancy, curgew v	iolations, incor	rigibility, and m	inor in possession	on of tobac	co.	CYF	D.FederalCompliance
Please submit information to SMARTY at: https://smarty.cyfd.nm.gov/ For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:					ļ	ogs are due e	every month for all you	ith deta	ined/confi	ned. Ple:	ase keen t	his log for w	our record	S.				""
For more information on federal compliance requirements and additional resources, please visit:					_	_								J.
																or
				ht	tps			•	•					ance/					505-490-1069